

Cookies policy

We use cookie files for our activities. Using our services means you agree to saving and using them.

The cookies policy applies to all websites and applications for mobile devices that belong to Conotoxia Holding Sp. z.o.o. ("Group"). Conotoxia, Inc. is part of Group, and therefore this policy is applicable to Conotoxia, Inc.'s website and applications. By continuing to use our Conotoxia, Inc. website, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small piece of data sent from a website and stored in your web browser while you are browsing that website. Every time you load the website, the browser sends the cookie back to the server to notify the website of your previous activity. You can set your web browser to warn you about attempts to place cookies on your computer or to limit the type of cookies you allow. For more information, please see the FTC's guidance on cookies and other forms of online tracking.

What do we use cookies for?

Cookies are used for the following purposes:

- to enable the use of the Client Panel,
- to enable access to the Partnership Program,
- to adjust the service to the user's preferences,
- to obtain anonymous data concerning the way in which the website is used,
- to make it easier for users to navigate the service,
- to ensure security standards.

Both 'permanent' and 'session' cookies are used by Conotoxia, Inc. „Permanent” cookies remain on the Internet browser of the given device. They are either removed by the user or removed automatically after a predefined time, which is determined in the parameters of cookies. 'Session' cookies remain on the browser until the session is terminated or the user logs out.

Cookies are also used by the entities cooperating with the Capital Group, which are companies related by capital with Conotoxia, Inc., where the parent company is CONOTOXIA HOLDING Sp. z o.o. - Google Inc. We use Google Analytics, Google Places API, and YouTube, which share a common privacy policy. Additionally, we use Hotjar and Matomo. For full information on privacy policies, please refer to the product pages:
